Dear Sir:-

Herewith enclosed please find Application of Mr. Louis Segel of No. 926-Seventeenth Street, Altoona, Pa., for a passport; also find letter from Chief Passport Bureau; One Dollar ($1.00) Costs; and Naturalization Papers, which were originally made out in error to Louis Sigal. You will find the endorsement of the Prothonotary, and the President Judge recommending and granting the Prayer of Mr. Segel's Petition for the change of his name from Sigal to Segel, his correct name. The error was originally made on account of Mr. Segel's inability to write his name legibly, and his unfamiliarity with the American Language at the time he signed his original paper. Trusting that you will find everything in proper shape, he begs to remain

Secretary of State

Sir,

I enclose application for passport for Solomon Joseph which was returned to him on account of discrepancy in dates. The man made a mistake in the year of his coming to this country. He came in 1892 and not in 1893 as he told me. I am convinced that it was a mistake of his, as he came with some other men the year before the World's Fair.

I have made the correction in the presence of the deputy clerk of courts, before whom he took the oath of allegiance. Will you kindly tell him whether or not he has to get a letter from the Turkish Consul here.

Hoping that this correction will be satisfactory, I am,

Very respectfully,

G. Jenkins

Detroit, March 24th, 1904.

Hon. Secretary of State,
Passport Department,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

I return herewith application for passport, together with full citizenship papers, which were returned to the applicant on account of discrepancy in the date as to the time Adolph Schadt declared his intention to become a citizen. Upon careful examination of the papers I find the date should be 1884 instead of 1894. I have, therefore, corrected the date in the certificate of citizenship which sets up the date at which the applicant declared his intention. The mistake was clearly a clerical error upon the part of Mr. Kellogg, the deputy clerk who issued the citizenship certificate.

Trusting this explanation will be accepted as satisfactory, and which is in accordance with the actual facts as they appear from the records of this office, I remain,

Very respectfully,

Wm. H. McGregor
County Clerk.

Dear Sirs:-

We beg to return herewith passport application and ~~naturalization~~ papers favor of William Becker. In regard to his name appearing in two different ways we might say that Mr. Becker about fifteen years ago purchased some property and was urgently requested to use his middle initial and has been doing so ever since. Previous to that time he never used it, this was explained to us by Mr. Becker in person and trust under these circumstances you will be able to return passport to us.
